

Chadwick and Amy's Goulash:

1 ½ lb burger

1 onion diced

Garlic to taste

1 lb elbow noodles

2 cans tomato soup

1 can enchilada sauce

1 can kidney beans (drained)

1 can chili beans

In a large skillet, sautee onions and garlic

Add burger and cook until brown (drain off fat)

In a large pot, prepare noodles and drain

To the pot add:

- Noodles
- Burger/onion/garlic mix
- Both cans of beans
- Both cans of tomato soup
- Enchilada sauce

Mix well

Add ketchup to your liking (I typically add approximately $\frac{3}{4}$ cup, and adjust to the perfect flavor)

When you heat up your leftovers the following day – add 1 can diced tomatoes, not drained.

Turns out perfect every time.
